

Special ADOA Work-Life Programs Lunch n Learn Emergency Preparedness and H1N1 Series

September is National Preparedness Month and we want all state employees to have access to information to help you prepare for any emergency. Through a partnership of the Arizona Departments of Administration, Health Services, Homeland Security, Emergency Management and Military Affairs, and Maricopa County Emergency Management, we are pleased to offer two very important Lunch n Learns on emergency preparedness and the H1N1 virus.

Each session will be offered in the Phoenix Capitol Mall area and there is a special presentation for employees in the Tucson area. See the program information below. Registration information follows at the end of this announcement.

H1N1 – Get the Facts!

Date: Tuesday, September 29, 2009

Time: 11:30 am – 12:30 pm

Location: 18th & Washington Executive Tower/Grand Canyon Room (basement level)

Are You Prepared for an Emergency?

Description: September is National Preparedness Month! There is no better time to learn what you can do to keep yourself and your loved ones safe in an emergency. By attending this seminar, you'll learn the hazards in Arizona (yes, there are hazards) and the easy steps you can take to be prepared.

(It's also an opportunity to get the facts about H1N1 influenza. Join Tim Siemsen, Pima County Health Department, for an informative presentation on how you can prepare yourself and your loved ones for the coming flu season. Tucson only.)

Date: Tuesday, September 22, 2009

Time: 11:30 am – 12:30 pm

Location: 400 W. Congress, Room 158, Tucson, AZ 85701
