

Column Definitions

Paycode	You enter pay codes on time records to indicate what type of pay the employee receives.
System Generated	These pay codes are used programmatically. System edits disallow the use of these pay codes on time records
Standard Time Record	Recurring payments to employees containing the type of pay (pay code), hours, and/or fixed rate. Standard Time Records may be established for individuals or employee groups.
Employee Group	Employee groups allow you to group a set of employees together, based on common criteria.
One Time Payments	Some pay codes state that they are one-time payments. These pay codes will never be used on a Standard Time Record. These will be entered on the Detail Time Entry form (XR35.2).
